Interfaith Families Project

High Holy Days 2020

IFFP

The Interfaith Families Project of Greater Washington (IFFP) is an independent community of interfaith families and others. We are committed to sharing, learning about, and celebrating our Jewish and Christian traditions.

Now in our third decade, we have grown to over 100 families from Maryland, Virginia, and Washington D.C. It's a place where both Jewish and Christian partners can feel like equal members of the community; where both can celebrate and learn about both faiths and where we "teach not preach."

Note: The language in these prayers, songs, texts, poems might not connect to you. We invite you to change the language if you need to make it work for you. For example, If you don't connect to God language, feel free to change it to Universal Love or Nature.

Yom Kippur

Return Again

Return again, return again, return to the home of your soul.

Return again, return again, return to the home of your soul.

Return to who you are, return to what you are,
Return to where you are born and reborn again.

Gather Us In

Here in this place, new light is streaming, Now is the darkness vanished away See in this space, our fears and our dreamings, Brought here to you in the light of this day.

Gather us in, the lost and forsaken,
Gather us in, the blind and the lame.
Call to us now, and we shall awaken,
We shall arise at the sound of our name.

We are the young, our lives are a mystery,
We are the old who yearn for your face.
We have been sung throughout all of history,
Called to be light to the whole human race.
Gather us in, the rich and the haughty.
Gather us in, the proud and the strong.
Give us a heart so meek and so lowly.
Give us the courage to enter the song.

Gather us in, and hold us forever.

Gather us in, and make us your own.

Gather us in, all peoples together,

To live lives that are holy with hearts that are true

Painting a Morning Panorama

Praised be You, O God
Who paints a morning panorama
On the Appalachian peaks
That moves us to say
Let's walk in the country
Let's go to the lake

Praised be the One Who makes old people young By the simple change of the weather

Praised be the God
Of early Spring
And Indian Summers
For Your magic touch
Of subtle miracles
Is everywhere.
--Danny Siegel

הַמֶּלֶדְ היוֹשֵׁב עַל כִּפֵא רָם וְנִשְּׁא:

Hamelech hayosheiv al kisei ram v'nisah!

The infinite power resides at the highest level of unity.

We praise the high and holy, filling infinity, in whom the righteous rejoice. Exalted by the wonder of the innocent

Blessed by the words of the wise Sanctified by the songs of the loving Reflected in the depths of the holy.

Hatzi Kaddish

Make the God name big. Big and Holy. Do it in this world. This creation sprung from consciousness. And bring some order to this... Do it fast, soon, in our lives, in the days ahead, in the life of the people we call home. Everybody join with me: May the name be blessed forever and ever! Yes, blessed. Blessed, whispered, sung out, shouted, honored, this Holy Name. The Name far beyond any song, poem, or comforting words we could ever speak. Everybody say: That's the truth!

Come, let's climb the mountain together.

The still small voice calls within us, engraving its covenant into our hearts.

It guides us towards compassion, towards the spark of faith that can never be extinguished.

When it leads us into the wilderness, it is only so we can embrace the divine.

Ken Tachanenu

We yearn for the truths that our forebears accepted through trust and faith—and mercy reaches out to us; we receive understanding, that we can learn and teach, listen, guard and fulfill the truth, all in love.

Ve'Ahavta -- Marge Piercy

So you shall love what is holy with all your courage, with all your passion with all your strength.

Let the words that have come down shine in our words and our actions.

We must teach our children to know and understand them.

We must speak about what is good and holy within our homes when we are working, when we are at play, when we lie down and when we get up.

Let the work of our hands speak of goodness.

Let it run in our blood and glow from our doors and windows.

Ve'Ahavta (cont'd)

We should love ourselves, for we are of God.

We should love our neighbors as ourselves. We should love the stranger, for we were once strangers in the land of Egypt and have been strangers in all the lands of the world since.

Let love fill our hearts with its clear precious water.

Heaven and earth observe how we cherish or spoil our world.

Heaven and earth watch whether we choose life or choose death.

We must chose life so our children's children may live.

Be quiet and listen to the still small voice within that speaks in love.

Open to that voice, hear it, heed it and work for life.

Let us remember and strive to be good. Let us remember to find what is holy within and without

Mi Chamocha

May we share our delight

May we share our delight in this day of atonement, for forgiving, for resetting, for transforming, for gathering in holiness, to remember the going forth from Egypt. May grace ascend within us, open our ears, open our hearts and minds: to the devotion of our ancestors, to the flame of the Messiah, to our people Israel, to all humankind.

May the joy of this day thread its way into our day-to-day lives, bringing us, and all those we meet, goodness and blessing, life and peace.

Kedushah

We sanctify Your name in the world, in the same way as they sanctify it in the Heavens above. As it is written by the hand of Your prophets, "And the angels called, to one another, saying:

Silent Amidah

Compassion's might has no limit: sustaining the living with kindness, lovingly bringing life to the lifeless; stirring us to lift the fallen, heal the sick, free the bound, and keeping faith even with those who sleep in the dust. Who is like this source of mercy, binding its children into life, in mercy. Always it is the faithful source of life. Blessed is the compassion that fills matter with living spirit.

Holiness surrounds us, and all creatures, filled with this holiness, day after day proclaim the One. Blessed is holiness, the deepest power.

And so, let creation be amazed, and all its works stand in awe, and every creature be overcome by the unity that connects us all; so that all join in whole-hearted fellowship to heal and complete the design. We know, we have always known, that there is nothing, in all space and time, truly disconnected from the divine, nothing that cannot become a joyful part of holy creation.

And so, may those who serve be honored, and those who stand in awe be joyful. Give hope to those who seek integrity, and let those who yearn for good find their voice. Help all lands find joy, and fill every city with gladness, so that the light of redemption be kindled soon, in our days.

Silent Amidah (cont'd)

And so the innocent will see and be glad, those yearning for justice will rejoice, those who have been searching will celebrate in song; as deceit finally shuts its mouth, and evil dissolves like smoke, and the dominion of arrogance is swept from the earth.

May our prayers be heard and received in love, and may what we say and what we do be loving and be worthy of love.

Reveal to us the path that leads us all to the holy of holies; we give thanks for the miracle of revelation.

We give praise for our lives, our souls, and for all the miracles that are with us every day, the miraculous good that surrounds us every hour, evening, morning, and afternoon.

We trust completely in the good, for compassion never ends; in the compassionate, for generosity never fails. For all these we give blessing and exaltation. May all your children be bound up into life and good fortune. All life gives praise.

May our prayers become a conduit that swiftly carry us to the time when all Israel, all peoples, serve the divine plan; when every hour and every minute is filled with peace. May we and all your children be inscribed in the book of life, blessing, peace, and good livelihood.

Blessed is peace.

Sim Shalom

Grant peace everywhere goodness and blessing, Grace, loving kindness and mercy to us and unto all people. Bless us, with the light of Your face; For by the light of Your face You have given us, Adonai our God, The Torah of life, and love of kindness, and righteousness and blessing and mercy and life and peace; And may it be good in Your eyes to bless all people, at all times and in every hour with Your peace.

Alternative Al Chet by Emily Aviva Kapor-Mate

We have sinned against You unwillingly and willingly. We keep ourselves ignorant of things we find unpleasant, and ignore them when they come before us.

We have sinned against You by misusing our minds. We harbor hateful thoughts, hold grudges, and let wounds fester. We use our intellects as a weapon.

We have sinned against You by sexual immorality. We fail to stand against child trafficking and to stand up for the rights of sex workers, and we fail to acknowledge a moral difference.

We have sinned against You knowingly and deceitfully. We foresee the consequences of our actions and go ahead with them anyway, choosing the easy route to personal fulfillment.

We have sinned against You by wronging others. We tell half-truths and lie by omission. We say "I'm fine" when what we mean is "I need help".

We have sinned against You by supporting immorality. We allow evil to flourish and remain silent while atrocities are committed. We stand on our neighbors blood.

Ve'al Kulam

וְעַל כָּלָּם אֱלוֹהַ סְלִיחוֹת. סְלַח לָנוּ. מְחֵל לַנוּ. כַּפֵּר לַנוּ:

V'al kulam Elo'ah selikhot: s'lakh lanu. mekhal lanu. kaper lanu.

For each of these mis-deeds, we seek this day release.

Forgiving and forgetting, coming back now to our core.

Alternative Al Chet cont'd

We have sinned against You by deriding parents and teachers. We ignore our elders, and think of them as a burden. We assume that not everyone has something to teach us, so we fail to learn from all people.

We have sinned against You by strengthening our grasp. We become violent and we lash out. We strike at others and use our fists instead of our consciences. We support violence in the world when the "good guys" are doing it.

We have sinned against You by impurity of our lips. We spread gossip and slander. We lie to ourselves and say "I know it's loshon hora, but..." We do not practice right speech.

We have sinned against You by not resisting the impulse to evil. We succumb to our desires and our base emotions, and we do not fight back. We know we might not win the fight, so we just don't engage.

We have sinned against You by fraud and falsehood. We overrepresent ourselves and our talents. We take on obligations we know we will be unable to meet.

We have sinned against You by scoffing. We assume we know better, and we tell people that they're doing it wrong. We give unsolicited advice, and we are not grateful for others' efforts.

Ve'al Kulam

וְעַל כֻּלָּם אֱלוֹהַ סְלִיחוֹת. סְלַח לָנוּ. מְחַל לָנוּ. כַּפֶּר לָנוּ:

For each of these mis-deeds, we seek this day release.

Forgiving and forgetting, coming back now to our core.

Alternative Al Chet cont'd

We have sinned against You by dishonesty in business. We return items six months past their return-by date. We lose our tempers at store workers making minimum wage. We buy from large chains to save a buck while promoting the virtues of supporting small, locally owned businesses.

We have sinned against You by charging usurious interest. We fudge numbers for our customers and on our taxes, and we excuse ourselves by saying the 1% are so much worse. We don't give our spare change to homeless people who sleep on the street because we don't like the look of their clothes.

We have sinned against You by idle chatter. We fritter away our time in small talk. We stare at screens and interrupt time with our loved ones by taking text messages. We let Twitter and Facebook overwhelm our lives.

We have sinned against You by haughtiness. We look down our noses at people who don't measure up to our standards. We stare at people who are different. We exile people with mental or physical disabilities from our presence. We assume everyone is just like us and nobody could possibly be-or want to be-different.

Alternative Al Chet cont'd

We have sinned against You by shirking responsibility. We don't want to do things because they're hard. Even easy things we don't do because they're inconvenient. We let the garbage sit around the house and the laundry stay undone. We let sloth and inertia dictate the pace of our lives.

We have sinned against You by plotting against others. We are exclusionary and form cliques, and talk about outsiders behind their backs. We form schemes and plans to make other people do what we want them to.

We have sinned against You by irreverence. We laugh inappropriately. We tell racist jokes in the presence of other white people. We say "I know this is tasteless, but..." and get defensive when we are called out.

We have sinned against You by rushing to do evil. We fall into patterns and form habits. We run off to do things we know we shouldn't be doing.

We have sinned against You by taking vain oaths. We have selective memories, and fib about what we do remember. We "swear to God" when what we really mean is "please believe me".

We have sinned against You by breaching trust. We violate the confidence of others. We say "without naming names" when everyone knows who we mean. We say "I can't talk about this publicly" and then we do it anyway. We do not regard other people as sacred.

Torah Reading First Aliyah

When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap all the way to the edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not pick your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen fruit of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the stranger: I the LORD am your God.

You shall not steal: you shall not deal deceitfully or falsely with one another. You shall not swear falsely by My name, profaning the name of your God: I am the LORD. You shall not defraud your fellow. You shall not commit robbery. The wages of a laborer shall not remain with you until morning.

Torah Reading Third Aliyah

You shall not insult the deaf, or place a stumbling block before the blind. You shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

You shall not render an unfair decision: do not favor the poor or show deference to the rich; judge your kinsman fairly.

Do not deal basely with your countrymen. Do not profit by the blood of your fellow: I am the LORD.

You shall not hate your kinsfolk in your heart. Reprove your kinsman but incur no guilt because of him. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against your countrymen. Love your fellow as yourself: I am the LORD.

Aleinu

It is our duty to acknowledge the single true source, to shout out praise for the works of creation.

We honor, thank, and pledge ourselves to the Blessed Holiness that spreads out the heavens. whose generosity upholds everything on earth. So we hope-how we hope!—that the many gods of divisiveness and distortion, of pride and destruction - all the sad broken pieces of the whole-find their way back into the single vessel of life, that the world may be repaired. We hold on to this vision, despite history, in the face of despair, because one day the whole world will acknowledge the divine. On that day, all will understand the unity.

Wellspring of compassion, dwelling in the loftiest space, find a perfect resting place in the shelter of the wings of the Shechina, among the holy and pure ones who have risen and now shine out like the brightness of the heavens, for the souls of our dear ones who have gone into their eternity. May the Garden of Eden be their resting place. Please, source of compassion, nestle them in the shelter of your wings forever, and bind their souls within the bundle of life. God, you are now their inheritance. And may they rest in their graves in peace. Let us say, amen.

We Remember Them

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.

For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, We remember them.

The Lord is my Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul, and guides my path in righteousness for his names' sake

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever and ever and ever.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will not fear; thou art with me.

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil, my cups overflowing.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever and ever and ever.

Eleh Ezkerah

אֵלֶה אֶזְכְּרָה וְנַפְּשִׁי עָלֵי אֶשְׁפְּכָה. כִּי בְּלֶעוּנוּ זִדִים כְּעֻנָה בְּלִי הֲפוּכָה. כִּי בִימֵי הַשָּׁר לֹא עָלְתָה אַרוּכָה. לַעַשָּׂרָה הֵרוּגִי מִלוּכָה:

Eleh Ezkera venafshi ali eshp'cha. Ki velunu zeidim k'uga b'li hafucha. Ki vimei hashar lo alata aruka la'asara harugay m'lucha. These I remember and pour out my soul For throughout history hatred has pursued us, and taken our martyrs.

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves are lost and are no more.

There are people the brightness of their memory gives light even though they themselves are no longer among us.

These lights—
Shining in the darkest night—it is these that light the way for mankind.

Mourner's Kaddish (English)

Everything becomes fuller and increases in holiness, here in this intentionally created world.

May we and everyone around us be able to see this, every day of our lives, and may we see it soon.

Amen.

May this holiness, whatever we name it, be blessed in this world and in any other world that might be.

Holiness is growing, it is transcendent, it is wonderful, it is always reaching higher, it goes far beyond any prayer or praise or comfort that can be offered in any world. Amen.

May a heavenly peace come into our lives and those of all people. Amen.

May the harmony that prevails in the heavens guide us and all people to peace. Amen.
